Pacific Forum CSIS is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit and all contributions are tax-deductible.

Your contribution will help support the Pacific Forum's ongoing programs in policy research and dialogue which promote cooperative policies in the Asia-Pacific region. Pacific Forum publications and projects make practical recommendations to policy makers and illuminate possible policy directions to address problems of regional concern on political, security, and economic issues. Individual and corporate contributions help to cover overhead costs for current and future projects and personnel expenditures.

Sustaining Member Benefits:

- Pacific Forum publications, including PacNet, Comparative Connections, and Issues & Insights.
- Participation in select Honolulu International Forum (HIF) events.
HIF roundtable discussions feature expert speakers, both from Asia and the U.S, giving members the opportunity to interact with a wide variety of distinguished experts.
- Participation in other Pacific Forum "by invitation only" events, including our annual dinner on the occasion of our Board of Governors meeting.
