

Center for Strategic & International Studies
Washington, DC

May 31, 2005

Dear Colleague:

The CSIS Africa and Homeland Security Programs and the U.S.-Angola Chamber of Commerce wish to invite you to a roundtable discussion with Angola's Vice Minister for Health José Van-Dunem. This session will take place on Wednesday, June 8, from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at CSIS, 1800 K Street, N.W., 4th Floor Conference Room.

David Heyman, director of the CSIS Homeland Security Program, and Paul J. Hare, executive director of the U.S.-Angola Chamber of Commerce, will moderate the session. Vice Minister Van-Dunem will provide an update on the status of efforts to bring about effective controls of the Marburg virus outbreak.

Please direct RSVPs and any questions to Nelly Swilla at nswilla@csis.org or (202) 775-3152. I hope that you will be able to join us in this important discussion.

Regards,

J. Stephen Morrison
Director, CSIS Africa Program

Paul J. Hare
Executive Director, U.S.-Angola Chamber of Commerce