

The Center for Strategic and International Studies' Task Force on HIV/AIDS presents:

Interim Report of the CSIS HIV/AIDS Mission to Vietnam

Co-Sponsored by:

Senator Richard Lugar, (R-IN)
Chair, SFRC

Senator John Kerry, (D-MA)
Original CSIS Task Force Co-Chair

Welcome by:

Dr. John Hamre
President and CEO, CSIS

Speakers:

Peter Piot
Executive Director, UNAIDS

Tommy G. Thompson

Delegation Chair and Former Health and Human Services Secretary

Moderated by:

J. Stephen Morrison
Executive Director, CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Thursday March 9, 2006

10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Dirksen Senate Building, Room 419

Please RSVP to Kelley Hampton at (202) 457-8717 or khampton@csis.org

The CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS led an expert mission to Vietnam January 8-13, 2006 to study the HIV/AIDS situation and response in Vietnam. This Interim Report summarizes its findings and recommendations. The CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS is co-chaired by Senators Bill Frist (R-Tenn.) and Russell Feingold (D-Wis.) and is funded principally by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. Senator John Kerry was an original co-chair of the Task Force at its commencement in 2001.