

INVITATION

Center for Strategic and International Studies ■ Washington, D.C.

China Policy and High Technology Trade Under Secretary of Commerce David McCormick

On June 9th from 9:00am – 11:00am, 1800 K Street, B1 Conference level, CSIS' Technology and Public Policy Program will host Under Secretary of Commerce David McCormick, who will speak on Administration plans to implement its policy of facilitating high tech and strategic trade with China in a way that safeguards U.S. national security.

Under Secretary McCormick, having recently returned from meetings with top Chinese officials in Beijing, will discuss challenges and opportunities for U.S-China high technology trade. Please mark your calendars for this on-the-record event.

The event will feature opening remarks by CSIS President and CEO, Dr. John Hamre.

RSVPs can be sent to techpolicy@csis.org