

INVITATION

Center for Strategic and International Studies ■ Washington, D.C.

Container Security Devices: Vision and the Path Forward
International Cooperation to Protect Global Trade

Wednesday July 11, 2007

9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Please note the new start time

*Center for Strategic and International Studies, Conference Room B1
1800 K Street NW, Washington DC*

Five years ago, CSIS hosted a speech by former-Commissioner of the U.S. Customs Service Robert Bonner in which he outlined a bold plan for improving the security of international trade through a Container Security Initiative and other measures that would establish a "global green lane" for safe commerce.

To reflect on where we have come since then, and to look ahead to the future of trade security, the CSIS Homeland Security Program and Americas Program present a half-day conference featuring expert perspectives from around the world for a comprehensive look at the ongoing quest to realize this vital international security imperative.

- 9:30 a.m. Welcome
David Heyman, Director and Senior Fellow, Homeland Security Program, CSIS
- 9:35 a.m. In-Transit Security: Vision and the Path Forward
Robert C. Bonner, Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher
W. Ralph Basham, Commissioner, U.S. Customs and Border Protection
Moderator Arnaud de Borchgrave, Director and Senior Adviser, Transnational Threats Project, CSIS
- 10:45 a.m. Panel 1 – Global Shipping Perspective and Technology
Sean Dettloff, Manager in Asset Protection, Starbucks Coffee Corporation
Elaine Dezenski, Senior Vice President, Global Government Relations, Cross Match Technologies
Moderator Joel Webber, Partner, Couri & Couri PLC
- 12:00 p.m. Luncheon Panel 2 – Internationalizing the Green Lane
Allan Bartley, Director, Marine Security Policy, Transport Canada
Larry Burton, Senior Technical Officer, World Customs Organization
Donna Shira, Co-Chair, American Association of Exporters and Importers Security Subcommittee and Associate, Sharretts, Paley, Carter & Blauvelt
Lauren Zucker, Director, Cargo, Maritime and Trade, Department of Homeland Security
Moderator Seth Stodder, Senior Counsel, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld

Please RSVP by contacting Tanya Primiani at tprimiani@csis.org or (202) 775-3274. Feel free to pass along this invitation to interested individuals.