

AFRICA PROGRAM

Center for Strategic and International Studies ■ Washington, D.C.

The Center for Strategic and International Studies Africa Program and the U.S. Institute of Peace present a public panel discussion detailing recent Human Rights Watch and UN Monitoring Group reporting, as well as the evolving humanitarian and political challenges to peace in Somalia.

“Somalia’s Crisis: Challenges to Peace”

Wednesday, September 5, 2007

3:00 – 5:00 pm

B-1 Conference Level

Center for Strategic and International Studies

1800 K St. NW

Washington, DC

With:

Jim Swan

Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs

Leslie Lefkow

Human Rights Watch

Geoff Loane

International Committee of the Red Cross

Ken Menkhaus

Davidson College

Moderated By:

Steve Morrison

CSIS Africa Program

David Smock

U.S. Institute of Peace