

The Hills Program on Governance
&
The Caux Round Table

Cordially invite you to attend a discussion of:

Qur'anic Guidance for Good
Governance

Presented by scholars from the International Islamic University of Malaysia (IIUM) who will present their analysis of the Qur'an and its implications on good governance in both public and private sectors in Muslim societies

Monday, June 9, 2008

3:00-5:00pm

B-1 Conference Center

Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

1800 K Street, N.W.

Washington, D.C.

Introductions:

Stephen Young, Global Executive Director, Caux Round Table

Featuring:

Dean Ibrahim Zein, International Institute of Islamic Thought & Civilization, IIUM

Professor Abdullah al-Ahsan, Department of History and Civilization, IIUM

Professor Muhammad Arif Zakaulah, Department of Economics and Management Sciences, IIUM

Comments By:

Cardinal Theodore McCarrick, Archbishop Emeritus of Washington, D.C.

Michael Novak, George Frederick Jewett Scholar in Religion, Philosophy, and Public Policy,
American Enterprise Institute

Concluding Remarks:

Roderick M. Hills, Founder and Chairman, Hills Program on Governance, CSIS

Please RSVP to telliott@csis.org or (202) 457-8730