

ADVISORY BOARD

Erry Riyana Hardjapamekas (Chairman, Advisory Board) was formerly Vice Chairman of the Corruption Eradication Commission of the Republic of Indonesia and President Commissioner of the Jakarta Stock Exchange from 1998-2001. He is currently President Commissioner of Bank BNI.

Ali Alatas was formerly the Minister of Foreign Affairs for Indonesia from 1988-1998 and Special Envoy of the United Nations to negotiate with the Government of Burma for the release of Aung San Suu Kyi. He is currently a member of the President's Council of Advisors and Chairman for International Relations Affairs.

Arief Surowidjojo has previously served as Chair of the Board of Trustees of Transparency International (Indonesia). He received his J.D. from the University of Washington and is currently a Senior Partner at Lubis, Ganie & Surowidjojo and Senior Lecturer at the Faculty of Law at University of Indonesia.

Arifin Siregar was formerly Trade Minister for Indonesia in the 1990's, Governor of Bank Indonesia, and Indonesian Ambassador to the United States. He also served with the International Monetary Fund from 1965-1971. He is currently a Co-chairman of the Governing Board of the Indonesian Council on World Affairs and Co-chairman of the US-Indonesia Society (USINDO).

Emil Salim was formerly the Vice Chairman of Bappenas, Minister of State for the Improvement of the State Apparatus (1973-1978), Minister of Communication (1973-1978), Minister of State for Development Supervision Population and the Environment (1978-1983), and Minister of State for Population and the Environment 1983-1993). Presently he is a member of the President's Council of Advisors and Indonesian Academy of Sciences.

Emmy Hafild formerly served as Secretary General of Transparency International (Indonesia) and Director of WALHI-Friends of the Earth Indonesia. She studied agronomy at Bogor Agriculture Institute and was granted a Fulbright Scholarship to obtain her MSc. in Environmental Studies from the University of Wisconsin. Currently she is the Chief of Cluster, Economic and Environment Governance at the Partnership for Governance Reform in Indonesia.

Gerald F. Hyman (ex officio) formerly served as Director of the Office of Democracy and Governance at the U.S. Agency for International Development (2002-2007). He received a B.A. in philosophy and Ph.D. in anthropology from the University of Chicago and a J.D. from the University of Virginia. He is currently President of the CSIS Hills Program on Governance and serves on the Advisory Council to the Center for International Media Assistance of the National Endowment for Democracy.

Gita Wirjawan previously worked with Goldman Sachs. Currently he is both an investment banker and Senior Country Officer and President Director of JPMorgan Chase Bank in Indonesia.

Ipung Kurnia has been President Director of PT Hero Supermarket Tbk since 1992. He earned a B.A. in Marketing from Simon Fraser University (Canada) and an MBA from City University (Canada).

Kemal A. Stamboel is Vice President and Member of Council Board of deTIKNas (the Information Technology and National Communication Council).

Noke Kiroyan has headed several companies in Indonesia, including PT Newmont Pacific Nusantara and Rio Tinto, and has held senior management positions for firms in Germany and Australia. He is currently President Director and Founder of Kiroyan Kuhon Partners, which advises investors, particular foreign investors, on general business strategies in Indonesia. In addition, he provides advice on corporate social responsibility, public affairs, and communications.

Nono Anwar Makarim was formerly a member of Indonesia's Parliament (1967-1971) and has been legal advisor to the Government of Indonesia, including to the Minister of Trade and Industry for the Doha Round of multilateral negotiations and the Uruguay round of trade negotiations. He is Founding Partner of Makarim & Taira S., one of the most prominent finance law firms in Indonesia, and received his Ph.D. in law from Harvard University.

Peter Meyer is the senior country officer of the American International Group, Inc (AIG) in Indonesia. He moved to his current posting in 1987, following more than 10 years of general and regional line management assignments throughout Southeast Asia and the Far East. He served in various capacities with the Insurance Counsel of Indonesia, is an advisor to the board of the Indonesian Life Insurance Association (AAJI) and is a long standing Board of Governors' Member of AMCHAM Indonesia, where he also chairs the Chamber's Services Committee. He joined AIG in 1970 and has worked in the insurance industry for well over 40 years.

Roderick M. Hills (ex officio) formerly served as Counsel to President Gerald R. Ford, Chairman of the Securities & Exchange Commission (1975-1977), and Law Clerk to the United States Supreme Court (1955-1957). He was a Founder, former Chairman, and is currently the Vice-chairman of the US-ASEAN Business Council and has been a Visiting Professor at the Schools of Law and Business of Harvard University, a Distinguished Faculty Fellow at the Yale School of Organization and Management and a lecturer at the School of Law of Stanford University. He received his B.A. from Stanford University and J.D. from Stanford University's School of Law. He is currently a partner with Hills Stern & Morley LLP, and is a Cofounder and Chairman of the CSIS Hills Program on Governance.

Todung Mulya Lubis practices law and is one of the most prominent NGO activists in Indonesia. He is Chairman of the Executive Board of Transparency International (Indonesia) and the Indonesian International Crisis Group, Member of the Board of Trustees of the Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation, Head of the Ethical Board of the Indonesian Corruption Watch, and Member of the Board of Trustees of the Center for Electoral Reform.