

INVITATION

The CSIS Africa Program cordially invites you to a discussion on:

"Conflict and Governance in Uganda"

with

Andrew Mwenda
Managing Editor
The Independent Newspaper
Kampala, Uganda

Friday, November 21st, 1:00-2:30
Fourth Floor Conference Room
Center for Strategic and International Studies
1800 K St, NW Washington DC

moderated by

Jennifer Cooke
Director
CSIS Africa Program

Mr. Mwenda, one of Uganda's leading journalists, will assess the current political situation in Uganda, including the current standoff between the Lord's Resistance Army (LRA) and the government of Uganda. He will also discuss what efforts the U.S. and international community might take to move Uganda forward towards greater democratization. Before joining the Independent, Mr. Mwenda worked for the Monitor, where he hosted a highly popular and respected talk radio show on Monitor FM, providing unfiltered commentary on Ugandan politics and public affairs and challenging personalities such as Jeffrey Sachs and President Museveni. Mr. Mwenda was a Knight Fellow in Journalism at Stanford in 2005-2006.

Please RSVP to Africa@csis.org to attend.
